Thanks from Andrew

Thank you to everyone for all your efforts to make the Confirmation Service a huge success on Thursday evening. We had 230 people in and ran out of chairs and hymn books! Behind the scenes of such events goes a tremendous amount of planning and hard work. However from that endeavour flows fellowship, understanding, satisfaction and laughter. My particular thanks goes to Phil, Joanne & Stephen, Chris & Dianne, Pam and Elaine, Anita and Helen Kilroy from St Aldhelms. With heartfelt gratitude, Andrew

Testimonies from Confirmation Candidates

Mike:

During the many years since my baptism as a child I have considered confirmation and for many reasons didn't commit. However, now I am in place where I feel spiritually mature enough to strengthen my relationship with God and be confirmed. I believe that receiving the Holy Spirit will help me better serve God and my community. I also realise that it will be a challenging journey where I will need God's help

Solomon:

The Confirmation represents a renewal of my faith and dedication to God and Christ Jesus and to the seven Sacraments, and it represents part of my journey in faith in Christ. I will be self-fulfilled in the followership of Christ and the Church. This will also mean the completion of my pathway in the belief and service of God and Jesus Christ his only son and service to God and mankind. It will boost my spirit, dedication and belief in God and the general Christian faith. I believe that the sacrament imprints a spiritual mark upon my soul as I receive the confirmation. It represents my full initiation in the Church, and be able to have full participation in Church activities. So God help me.

Simeon Wynne

God has always been in my life as I have attended church from a young age. I feel that as I have aged, I have become more understanding of God and the Bible. After attending events like Soul Survivor, I felt as though God's presence was near and I feel as though I'm ready to fully commit myself to God.

Ali:

Since being baptised I have a new found confidence in my Christianity. Whilst I had always been a believer, I had felt a sense in which being part of God's family was somehow unobtainable. Others in my family had been baptised and I recall observing how calm and confident they appeared in their faith and their life. I now feel happy to have taken the plunge and made proper my commitment. It is wonderful to feel accepted by God and to understand more about my faith. I look forward to continuing this journey through confirmation and now know my faith will continue to grow from strength to strength.
